LEVEL I: (100 hours)

This course is designed for "true" beginners and will begin with the very basics of French grammar. Students will learn how to introduce themselves and greet others, how to give and understand simple directions and how to ask and answer specific questions.

LEVEL II: (100 hours)

This course is a continuation of Level I therefore students enrolling in this course should already have some basic knowledge of French (i.e. the alphabet, numbers, how to conjugate verbs in the present tense, and be able to perform the tasks as described in the previous course). Upon completion of Level II, students should be able to speak about work, family, their interests, the weather, and to participate in brief conversations.

LEVEL III: (100 hours)

The level 3 of the French as a Second Language program proposes a communicative approach to language learning. This course is designed to build the learners' competencies in French while developing their skills in speaking and listening, as well as reading and writing. The course focuses mainly around conversation, practical exercises and role playing, making for a fun and efficient learning atmosphere.

LEVEL IV: (100 hours)

Student enrolling in this course should already be able to communicate in French and must already have a general understanding of French grammar (i.e. present, past and future tenses). At the end of this course, students will be able to participate in conversations with greater ease. Students at this level will also work at developing their writing skills.

LEVEL V: (100 hours)

Upon completion of this course, students will have achieved a level at which they feel comfortable and confident enough to participate in conversations and discussions on general topics. Students will also have developed the skills to begin communicating with ease in writing.

LEVEL VI: (100 hours)

Designed for students with a good foundation in French, this course offers students a thorough grammar review and multiple opportunities to improve their language skills and to make progress toward fluency. Students practice speaking, reading, writing, and listening in and outside the classroom. Materials include literary texts from authors such as Voltaire, Rousseau, Baudelaire and other francophone writers, and various audio-visual materials.

LEVEL VII: (100 hours)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to participate effectively in most formal and informal conversations on practical, social and professional topics. Students will also be able to obtain and analyze information and opinions and will learn how to co-chair meetings and debates. Students will have mastered enough of the language to enable them to do advanced tasks such as defend an opinion, deal with hypothetical issues, and discuss complex work-related issues.

LEVEL VIII: (100 hours)

This course is designed for students who have successfully completed French Advanced I or who have the recommendation of the Department Head. The course focuses on refining conversational skills and reviewing essential grammar points, as well as exploring advanced grammar and complex sentence structure. Contemporary francophone culture is highlighted. Key authors from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are studied, as are the works of several French cinematographers such as Francois Truffaut, Eric Rohmer, and Claude Berri. Units on sociopolitical aspects of French history from 1789 to the present are examined. The role of France and francophone countries in contemporary international relations provides another facet of this course.

LEVEL IX: (100 hours)

A Survey of French Literature

An introduction to French Literature. Lectures, reading, discussion in French. Includes an historical survey of French civilization comprising developments in art, music, philosophy, and science. Readings in French literature from the Middle Ages to today, from the chivalrous medieval epic to the philosophies of the Enlightenment and expression of the egalitarian ideal of the Revolution, to le Nouveau Roman of the 1970's. Readings, lectures, discussions, student presentations, written work entirely in French.

TEFaQ and TEF

If you are planning to apply for the CSQ (Certificat de Sélection du Québec), Permanent Residence or citizenship, you will have to pass the TEFaQ/TEF exam, this course is for you. We train you specifically for the test, so that it will be easier to pass it. The course is thought by French teachers who are familiar with the required tests.

French in Medicine

This course is designed for those professionals who are trained in a language other than French and wishing to work in a French environment.

This course is open to doctors, nurses, and any other professionals who are required to have the high standing French knowledge to be able to function in the workplace.

Business French

This specialized French language course provides a thorough attention on communication in today's French business world. The program, vocabulary and real-world exercises lead to increased self-reliance in speaking and writing French in work place, as well as greater language proficiency in the subject(s) of one's choice. The emphasize will be given to the business communication in the IT world.

International students should apply at least 4 months prior to the start day of their program.
